

Safeguarding children and young people

Chabad Youth is committed to safeguarding children and young people in its care. As part of this commitment, we have developed practice and behaviour guidelines for our organisation, and these are approved and endorsed by Rabbi Moshe Kahn

All our 'involved' personnel, from Rabbi Moshe Kahn and senior managers to casual employees and volunteers, are required to observe our practice and behaviour guidelines.

Management considers a failure to observe our guidelines to be misconduct, and will result in appropriate disciplinary action. Depending on the seriousness of the misconduct, disciplinary action may include suspension while matters are investigated and/or dismissal. In addition to any internal disciplinary proceedings, any breaches of law will be reported to police.

Commitment

I, _____

Name of staff member or volunteer

- have been provided with a copy, have read, and have understood the 'Practice and behaviour guidelines' of Chabad Youth
- understand my responsibilities in relation to ensuring and promoting the safety of children and young people
- will observe the guidelines during my employment/time with Chabad Youth to ensure and promote the safety of children and young people participating in Chabad Youth provided by Chabad Youth
- understand that I must report any criminal conviction or charge subsequent to my employment that indicates that I may present a potential risk to the children or young people.

Signature of staff member or volunteer

Date

Name of management representative

Position/title of management representative

Signature of management representative

Date

