Child Safe Code of Conduct

1. PURPOSE AND BACKGROUND

- (1) To state our rules and expectations for staff about child safe behaviour in our service, and to outline the likely action we will take in the event of any breaches
- (2) We are required to have a Code of Conduct under the Education and Care Services National Regulations
- (3) A code of conduct is required under the Victorian Child Safe Standards. This Code of Conduct also helps to fulfil our obligation under the Reportable Conduct Scheme to have systems in place to prevent and respond to child abuse.
- (4) This code of conduct aligns with the ECEC Code of Ethics and the National Model Code for Taking Images or Videos of Children while Providing Early Childhood Education and Care (National Model Code)

2. SCOPE

- (5) This code applies to:
  - a. The approved provider, paid employees, volunteers and work placement students, referred to as 'staff' throughout this policy
  - Third parties who carry out child-related work at our service, including contractors, subcontractors, self-employed persons, employees of a labour hire company referred to as 'staff' throughout this policy
  - c. Visitors to our service who carry out child-related work, including allied health support workers
  - d. Parents, family members, care providers, other visitors to our service

3. DEFINITIONS

- (6) The following definitions apply to this policy and related procedures:
  - a. 'Breach' means any action or inaction that fails to comply with this Code
  - b. 'Child-related work' is used in this Code to refer to the work of our service (an education and care service for children). It does not apply where contact with children is incidental or would not reasonably be expected to occur (e.g. a plumber or delivery driver)
  - c. 'Harm' and 'risk of harm' are used in this policy as overarching terms that cover neglect and various forms of abuse. It includes physical, sexual and psychological abuse; neglect; ill-treatment; grooming; exposure to family violence; commercial child sexual exploitation; online child sexual abuse; and sexual abuse that is perpetrated by other children and young people
  - d. 'Parents' includes guardians and persons who have parental responsibilities for the child under a decision or order of court
  - e. 'Staff' refers to paid employees, volunteers, students, and third parties who are covered in the scope of this policy

4. CHILD SAFE CODE OF CONDUCT

- (7) Our Child Safe Code of Conduct is at Appendix A. It provides examples of the behaviour we want our staff to engage in and the behaviour that is unacceptable. Engaging in unacceptable behaviour is a breach of our Code and may result in performance management or disciplinary action
- (8) Examples of concerning behaviour are also described. On its own, a concerning behaviour may not be a breach of the Code; however, a pattern of concerning behaviour may pose a risk to children and be deemed a breach

5. CODE COMMUNICATION, TRAINING AND MONITORING

- (9) The approved provider and nominated supervisor provide information, training and other resources and support regarding the Child Safe Code of Conduct and related documents
- (10) All staff (including volunteers and students) are formally inducted. They are given copies of review, understand and formally agree to uphold this Child Safe Code of Conduct and related documents
- (11) The Nominated Supervisor runs a professional development program for each staff member, which covers this Code
- (12) The approved provider and nominated supervisor monitor the Child Safe Code of Conduct and staff practices to ensure our staff are understand and uphold the Code The approved provider and nominated supervisor monitor and audit staff practices. They address non-compliance. Breaches are taken seriously
- (13) Families know they can access our Child Safe Code of Conduct and related documents on our website.
- (14) Families are notified in line with our obligations under the National Regulations when changes are made to our policies and procedures, including this Child Safe Code of Conduct

Child Safe Code of Conduct

Commitment to child safety and wellbeing

Our number one priority is the safety, health and wellbeing of children in our care. We champion and model a child safe culture at all levels in our service.

We will not tolerate harm or the risk of harm to children or young people. We will not tolerate bullying or harassment. We act on any concerns about child safety and encourage a culture of reporting harm and risk of harm.

We listen to all children. We uphold their rights and empower them to know and exercise their rights. Children and families are involved in making decisions about matters that concern them. We are committed to equity and the inclusion of all children, regardless of their abilities, sex, gender, or social, economic or cultural background. We have an inclusive and welcoming environment for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, and respect and value their diverse and unique identities and experiences.

I WILL:

Follow the law and our policies and procedures:

Act in line with all relevant laws and regulations

Act in line with all of our policies and procedures, including our Child Safe Environment Policy and those that cover supervision practices, interactions with and between children, child protection, discrimination, bullying and harassment, communication (including online), technology use, photography, privacy and record keeping

Report and act on suspected or observed breaches of this Child Safe Code of Conduct

Take harm and the risk of harm to a child, including sexual misconduct, seriously:

Put children's safety, health and wellbeing first at all times, remembering my duty of care to take all reasonable steps to protect children from hazards and harm and the risks of harm,

Identify, report and manage risk of harm to children in line with our Child Safe Risk Management Plan and our other risk assessments, policies and procedures

Not tolerate bullying or harassment

Be aware of current child protection laws and my obligations under them, and undertake all the child safety/protection training I need

Take a child seriously if they make a disclosure about harm or risk of harm concerning themselves or another child Respond to suspicions, beliefs, disclosures, incidents, allegations, concerns and complaints about child safety, including harm or the risk of harm, following the relevant policy and procedure, including our Child Protection Policy and Procedures and Complaint Handling Policy and Procedure

Meet my child protection reporting obligations following our Child Protection Policy and Procedures, including mandatory reporting, and reporting criminal conduct, allegations of sexual misconduct, allegations of reportable conduct

Manage allegations of a child exhibiting harmful sexual behaviour in line with our Child Protection Policy and Procedures

Keep all information about child protection concerns confidential, except when it must be disclosed by law to a relevant authority under information sharing laws (as described in our Child Protection Policy and Procedures)

Treat children with respect:

Uphold the rights of children, and empower children to know and exercise their rights

Listen to and value children's ideas and opinions

Involve children (and their families and communities) in making decisions about matters that concern them

Behave in a courteous, ethical and respectful way towards children and their families and other staff members

Use positive behaviour management

Communicate in a polite and respectful way in written material (e.g. emails, social media)

Communicate in ways children (and their families and communities) can understand

Use non-intrusive physical contact with a child when it is warranted, such as to soothe, build trusting relationships, demonstrate learning, treat or prevent an injury, and to meet the health and hygiene needs of a child or the needs of a child with disability

Act professionally around children:

Dress in clean and suitable clothing and in line with our Dress Code

I WILL:

Be a positive team member and not allow any personal differences I have with other staff members get in the way of my meeting the needs of the children (and their family) in our care

Report any actual or perceived conflicts of interest to the nominated supervisor (such as an outside relationship with a child in our care)

Maintain proper supervision of children:

Strictly follow our supervision procedures and our policies and procedures, including during high-risk activities e.g., during the delivery and collection of children, travel between services, excursions, transport, nappy changing and toileting, water-play, special events with visitors etc

Raise any concerns I have about supervision with the nominated supervisor or approved provider

Work with children in an open and transparent way, so that the other adults know what work I am doing with children Avoid being alone with a child and try to stay in the line of sight of other staff members when I am working with children

Report to the nominated supervisor any situations in which I or another staff member is alone with a child and out of the line of sight of any other staff members

Use devices, and electronic and online platforms appropriately:

Follow all of our policies and procedures for using electronic devises and online platforms

Only use service-issued devices to take photos or make recordings of children

Keep my personal devices securely stored away from children

Get consent from parents before photographing or recording a child or using their image

Use a professional tone in online communications – social media, emails, other platforms

Contribute to a culturally safe and inclusive environment:

Welcome and celebrate all children (and their families and communities), regardless of their race, colour, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, language, religion, political or other opinion, health status, national, ethnic or social origin, culture, property, ability or other status

Acknowledge the histories, cultures, language, traditions, religions, spiritual beliefs, child rearing practices and lifestyle choices of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and their families

Make reasonable adjustments for children with disability

Take part in discussions and share knowledge about cultural safety with my colleagues

I WILL NOT:

Condone or engage in any activity that harms or risks harming a child:

Including physical, sexual or psychological/emotional abuse; ill-treatment; neglect; sexual grooming; commercial child sexual exploitation; online child sexual abuse; any other unsafe behaviour towards a child

Offer children and young people alcohol, cigarettes, vapes or other drugs

Be affected by alcohol or drugs while I am at work

Smoke or use e-cigarettes at the service, in the carpark, or within 4 metres of the pedestrian entrances/exits from our service

Fail to respond or report harm and the risk of harm to a child, including sexual misconduct:

Ignore or disregard any incidents, suspicions, disclosures or knowledge of harm or risk of harm to a child

Fail to report to the relevant authorities in line with my obligations and our Child Protection Policy and Procedures

Exaggerate or trivialise harm or risk of harm to children

Disclose personal or sensitive information about a child, including their image, and details of any child protection matters, unless I am authorised to do so

I understand the following types of behaviour may be of concern:

Talking with other adults about hurting a child

I WILL NOT:

Asking a child to keep a secret, including a relationship with an adult

How to report breaches:

Breaches and suspected breaches of our Child Safe Code of Conduct must be reported as soon as practicable
If the breach relates to child protection matter, staff must follow our Child Protection Policy and Procedures
For all other matters, staff must report to the Nominated Supervisor either in person, by telephone on 0408740011 or via email mk@chabadyouth.org

Staff should complete the Chabad Youth Safeguarding incident report which is available in our front office

How breaches will be dealt with:

Breaches and suspected breaches will be taken seriously and dealt with quickly, fairly, transparently and according to our relevant policies and procedures, including our HR/management policies, our Complaint Policy and Procedure and Child Protection Policy and Procedure, where appropriate.

Staff, including volunteers and students, who breach our Code may have disciplinary action taken against them, such as formal warnings, increased supervision, being transferred to another role, or having their employment suspended or terminated.

Reporting requirements:

In Victoria:

- Mandatory reporting laws require us to report reasonable beliefs a child is need of protection because they have suffered or are likely to suffer significant harm as a result of physical injury or sexual abuse and the child's parents have not, or unlikely to protect, the child
- There are criminal offences relating to failing to disclose information to police about child sexual offenses and failing to protect children against the risk of sexual abuse.
- The Reportable Conduct Scheme requires the approved provider to report allegations of child abuse (and other child-related misconduct) made against their workers and volunteers, irrespective of whether it relates to their employment or activities at the service

Our Child Protection Policy and Procedures detail our legal obligations and set out how to respond to incidents, disclosures and suspicions of harm and risk of harm, and how to make reports to the relevant authorities.
